

Hacivat and Karagöz are two important characters in Turkish-Ottoman theater history. Hacivat and Karagöz plays are indispensable especially during Ramadan. Both characters are very much loved by the Turkish people.

The play of Hacivat and Karagöz has very nice details. This play is a beautiful genre that belongs to the Traditional Turkish Theatre. In the general theme, Karagöz and Hacivat misunderstand the words they say to each other, and thus, funny dialogues emerge. Adding dance and music on top of these dialogues makes the process even more enjoyable. If you want to watch
